Christine Vonderach

Summary Christine Vonderach is an experienced technology leader who defines goals bridging business and IT, builds, scales, and enables change to make a measurable difference in customer and business value

Christine has a broad skill set from companies with significant technology scale integrating M&As, shaping strategy, bridging business and technology, engineering development, cloud and data center operations, project and product management, operational and capital budgets, and process change. She is proficient in delivering measurable results by rapidly assessing challenges, drawing on broad technology experience, building influence, and enabling teams with a strategic focus.

Her results have been achieved across a diverse set of industries over her career. Clients benefit from Christine's almost 30 years of experience building, scaling and operationalizing transformation.

Consulting Areas

- Information Technology •
- Digital Transformation
- M&A •

Associate

Business aligned IT strategy

Product Development

OPEX/CAPEX budgets

Analytics/Machine

Expertise

- Strategic Planning
- Operations
- Large-Scale Program Management •
- Cloud/AWS

Industry Verticals Served

High Tech, Software, Financial Services, Search Engines, Consumer Packaged Goods, Pharma

Learning

•

Representative Experiences

Clorox - Developed business-aligned IT strategy which defines the portfolio and investment plans for IT as part of an overall corporate digital transformation effort. Highly collaborative with functional teams to fund IT initiatives with business savings.

Blackhawk Network - A $2B company that creates solutions to give, receive and use branded value like gift cards, digital payments, loyalty points inclusive of the activation network, management, and distribution - B2C and B2B. HAWK technology integrates retail partners, banks, processors, printers, and telecom partners who provide or sell cards or data to enable over a half a billion annual transactions annual. Christine directed business applications, all partner onboarding (100s each year), IT opex and enterprise capex budgets, enterprise PMO, data center and cloud operations, 24X7X365 operations control center, network up-time, and significant M&A activity

Ask.com - ran the UK Product and Technology with virtual team in Calif, New Jersey, London, Romania. with positive query growth year over year (90M visitors) and reduction in site speed 50% and maintained for 1.5 years.

Past Employers

Clorox, Blackhawk Network, ask.com, PayPal, Netscape, Accenture.

Education, Training & Certifications

BS Engineering, Computers; Bucknell University

• Team Building & Performance Optimization

Cloud transformation

Process optimization

All aspects of define and build product mgmt., engineering, QA

Silicon Valley/East Bay